CAREER PLANNING (9/19, 2-4 PM)

Discover how your interests, skills, and values can guide your career path; and search for a job by building your personal brand, making connections, and working your job hunt like a job.

RESUME WRITING (10/3, 10 AM - 12 PM)

Your resume is a picture of you on paper: where you have been, what you have accomplished, and where you want to go. Learn how to “look good on paper.”

INTERVIEW SKILLS (10/17, 2-4 PM)

You’ve got your foot in the door. What should you wear? What should you say? Are you ready for any question they might throw at you?

DISCLOSURE & ACCOMMODATIONS (10/31, 10 AM - 12 PM)

Disclosing your epilepsy may seem overwhelming. Do you need some accommodations at work? Learn the Who, What, Where, When, and Why of disclosure, accommodations, and your rights.

NETWORKING SKILLS (11/7, 2-4 PM)

Build relationships, give help in order to get help, describe who you are and what you are looking for. Your personal and professional relationships may be the most important part of your job search.

SUCCESS @ WORK (11/13, 6-8 PM)

Executive functioning helps people plan, organize, strategize, pay attention to detail, and manage time. Problems with your executive functioning can interfere with your work.
